ORDER OF THE SERVICE

10 May 2016 Talas No. 9

Rules for visitors to monuments of the State Register

1. Visitors may walk on registered monuments where paths are open, and must keep off walls, roofs, excavations and fenced areas.

2. Photography for private use is allowed unless the Register entry says otherwise. It is not permitted inside the Church of St. Janyl during services, in the cathedral library and archives, in the painted rock shelter, at excavations, in the occupied ravine cells and anywhere in the restricted zone of the Qara-Chik line.

3. Drones need a permit of the Service and are never allowed over Cathedral Hill, Iyık Janyl, or in the restricted zone of the Qara-Chik line.

4. Fires, camping, writing or carving on stone and the removal of any stone, sherd or object are prohibited.

5. At churches, mosques, cemeteries and the ravine cells visitors follow the rules of the community that uses them.
